

The Eighth Grand Prix

Franco-Japonais de Designs de Robots

Association Franco-Japonaise des Arts

Theme
Designs of Robots that play active roles in France

Call for robot designs from children of the world!!

What is Grand Prix Franco-Japonais de Designs de Robots?

Our aim of this contest is to offer an opportunity to foster creativity as well as to expand artistic relations between Japan and France. This time, we call for designs of robots that live with human beings and are active in France.

Jury President
Robot Creator Tomotaka TAKAHASHI

CEO of ROBOGARAGE.Co.,Ltd, Research Associate Professor of The University of Tokyo, Adviser of Human Academy Co.,Ltd. etc

Graduated from Faculty of Engineering,Kyoto University in 2003
His representative works : "ROBOHON" , "KIROBO" , "ROBI" , "EVOLTA" , etc

Winner of RoboCup for the 5th consecutive year (2004 ~ 2008)
Selected by Time Magazine's Coolest Inventions of 2004

3 other juries

Application Requirements

Age : elementary and junior high schoolers

For painting

Design on a drawing paper size 297×420mm(11.69×16.54in)or257×364mm(10.12×14.33in)

Write name of robot, description of robot(within 200 words),your name, address,tel, age, school name, and grade on a separate piece of paper.

For 3D work

Create a robot freely with your favorite materials and with portable size.

Write name of robot, description of robot(within 200 words), your name, address,tel, age, school name, and grade on a separate piece of paper.

Send an original work and a photo of your work.

Application by E-mail

Send photos or a scanned images of your painting by e-mail.

Write name of robot, description of robot(within 200 words), your name, address,tel, age, school name, and grade in the body of e-mail.

Age: high schoolers, vocational school students, undergraduate students, and graduate students

1. Name of robot, description of robot (within 200 words)
2. Shape delineation for a drawing (overall view and ternary diagram with description of dimension)
3. Expected completion drawing (free expression such as sketch, computer graphics, and model)

Put the above condition 1,2, and 3 on drawing paper size 297×420mm within 2 papers and attach a photo.

(In the case of 3D work, attach 3 photos at most in place of an actual thing)

Write your name, address, tel, age, school name, and grade on a separate piece of paper.

Address: Association Franco-Japonaise des Arts 2-19-2 Nakane Meguro-ku Tokyo JAPAN

Application: from 1st December 2017 to 20th April 2018

Announcement of award winners: mid-June 2018(on our HP)

HP of Association Franco-Japonaise des Arts : <http://www.jfnet.org>

Award:elementary and junior high schoolers: Award certificate and gift

high schoolers, vocational school students, undergraduate students, and graduate students: Award certificate and ¥50,000 for study support

Exhibition:not yet determined

Association Franco-Japonaise des Arts owns the copyright of works. All rights reserved. Your work is unpublished.

We use personal data only for this contest.Your work is not returnable.

Inquiries: TEL/FAX : 03-3723-7665 E-mail: tomominomura@hotmail.co.jp

Organizer : NPO Association Franco-Japonaise des Arts

Under the auspices of Ministry of Education,Culture,Sports,Science and Technology of Japan

Ministry of Economy,Trade and Industry of Japan • Ministry of Agriculture,Forestry and Fisheries of Japan

Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan • Ambassade de France au Japon/Institut français du Japon

Meguro City Board of Education

Support:Human Academy Co.,Ltd. Huis Ten Bosch